Business is not just doing deals; it is about providing World-class service to customers.

Translation

Businesses world-over are recognising the role a well-translated document can play in combating climate change. Rephraserz can assist in broadening your businesses horizons by offering value-added Translation Service. We arrange translation of technical manuals, consignments, tenders, legal Statements, research materials, brochures, promotional material, instruction guides, client information and website pages. Our professional translators are aware that more than translating word for word, it is important to ensure that the document makes sense, underlies your message and allows margin for social and cultural differences. With us, you can be sure that the material will convey all the intended subtleness and details.

Get Localization, Not just Translation

Localization

To cater to the growing demand of global customers, we offer a range of localization services for website owners and software companies. Our localization services make it easy for you to handle the content of re-engineering of software products, gaming products, multimedia products, websites, courseware, web hosted e-learning documentation.

We can help you to:

- Expand your business into international markets
- Intensify your international market share
- Improve the user and customer experience
- Abide by all regulatory legislation at a global level
- Enhance the quality of your service while reducing support costs

Multilingual Voice Over services that others fail to deliver

Voice Over

Rephraserz offers the best voice over talent to make sure that the reach of your documentaries, films and presentations can expand beyond your physical reach. Our casting experience will help you get the right voice artist for your project.

Our skilled voice-over artists have a strong background in marketing, media and advertising. We choose male and female voices with utmost care to give credibility to your corporate or personal messages. All Rephraserz voice talents have experience in all types of voice over projects. With an accommodating approach to budget, we'll scale our service level depending on your requirements.

High Quality Subtitling for your High-End projects

Subtitling

Rephraserz offers a flexible approach to subtitling that facilitates the selection of the closest subtitling solution that matches your requirements and your budget.

If you don't have a ready-to-use transcript, we will create one. If you want the subtitles in any particular format, we'll do all the necessary conversions and deliver the document by web or by post. We offer two types of subtitling:

Pre-recorded subtitling: It includes translated subtitles, which are based on the translation of the dialogues. Depending on the context, the translated subtitles are sometimes shortened to convey the essence.

Live subtitling: It is mainly used for news events, talk shows or sports programs.

Accurate Transcription that doesn't embarrasses YOU in front of your customers.

Transcription

We specialise in providing verbatim transcripts as a Word document via web or hard copy. We have years of experience in transcribing for leading businesses from different industry sectors.

To maintain excellence in our work, we only get our transcriptions done by professional transcribers and not the audio typists. Furthermore, to make sure that the transcript is fluent and accurate, the editors thoroughly check the transcripts. From us, you will always get correct spellings, terminology, abbreviations and acronyms.

We also pride ourselves on our accuracy, reliability and confidentiality.

Its time to present your work globally

Desktop Publishing

We have established and operate a high end desktop publishing service. Our team has a passion for writing, designing and using creativity to turn talks into actions. They will help you provide a proof reading service to ensure the meaning and layout of your text is not compromised when adjustments are made to accommodate any formatting variations.

We can help you to create/edit/modify:

- Word documents
- Graphic designs
- Templates, tools, forms, manuals, packages and folders
- Conference
- Workshop presentations and handouts
- Brochures, banners and posters
- Digital presentations

For the words that sell
